Volume XIII, Issue 9

September 2022

The time was right for a little fun. We had successfully moved our son into NC State where he will be ensconced in the Engineering Department and studying in the Honors & Scholars Program. I felt like I could take a breather. What a treat it was...

Our own Valerie Paterson's exhibit "From the Heart" at Revolution Mills was a delight. The stories of her family and artistic progress were heartwarming and inspiring. Storytelling through fabric does not reside in my comfort zone, so I am always excited to see others' works. My husband and I were impressed and awed by her creative use of fabric and embellishment. Valerie included several unique "challenge quilts." Golden Medallions might be my favorite. If you haven't had the chance, you should stop by to see her exhibit which only lasts until the 31st!

Little did we know that we would spy another work by a member of our guild. Judi Bastion's small Mill Galaxy quilt was a little gem on our way out of the building. Her use of color beckoned us to take note and her use of perspective was spot on. Wow.

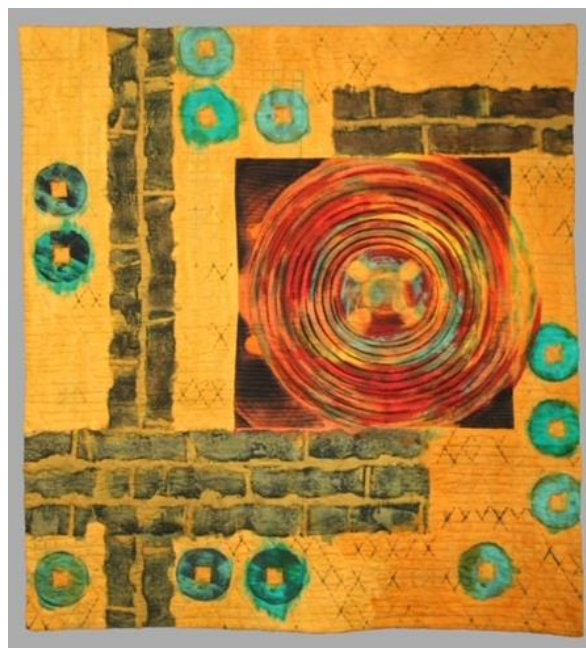

The talent in our small guild is truly amazing. I have seen the creativity and precision so many of you have shared with us in our quilt shows. Not only are you talented, but you are also courageous to present your quilts to the world. Kudos to everyone one of you. Michelle

September 1st
Meeting via Zoom
(6:30pm visiting, program starts at 7pm)

September 1st ZOOM meeting features Paula Golden with expert advice helping us to quilt smarter and longer as she presents “Healthy Quilting for All Ages”. She will provide tips on proper body mechanics and ergonomic work spaces that will help us be more productive as we sew on home machines, longarm machines, iron and hand sew.

Paula has taught nationally and internationally. Her patterns have been in a variety of publications and her quilts can be found in private and public collections. Check her website out at: paulagolden.com.

Little House Quilts for Habitat Greensboro

We have delivered another batch of “Little House Quilts” to Habitat Greensboro. These quilts are just darling! Families are able to choose one Little House Quilt as they move into their new home.

Please keep making them and bringing them to Guild meetings. Size about 12” or 14”. Remember to have some kind of hanging tabs, sleeve, or rings on the back. I apply a Gate City Quilt Guild label to each one.

Boutique Reminder

We have supplies like zippers, interfacings, Insulbrite, fabric, and trims. If you are making something for Boutique and need supplies give Donna Paulson a call. We may have what you need. Also, if you are making something as a gift, consider making an extra for Boutique. Thank for supporting the guild.

Yard Sale

I've been able to make a big deposit to storage with donations for our next show as well as sorting out and distributing items that can be used in the community. Please keep the yard sale items coming and remember what Karen Comstock said in her presentation last month – allow yourself to donate those items that you know you will never use. Just let me know when you have items to drop off or will have items at the monthly meetings.

Thank you all for supporting our guild, Darcy Benson

Raw Edge Applique / Quilting Mini Groups
